

Become a B&BAN Member

B&BAN membership is made up of Namibian Bed & Breakfasts that are committed to maintaining consistently high standards in guest accommodation. Raising the bar on Personal Attention is what sets B&BAN properties a cut above.

Along with your membership, you'll receive:

- Representation at national and international tourism expos and roadshows;
- Automatic FENATA membership (the umbrella organization for tourism associations in the private sector in Namibia);
- A certificate to prominently display in your B&B;
- Access to networking in our member's only Facebook group;
- Inside information, offers and member rates on B&B services and supplies;
- Advantage Opportunities for B&BAN members at wholesale discounts;
- A referral on our webpage;
- Professional advice on labour and IR issues;
- Saving on the group scheme of NAMMED (around N$1,000 p/m);
- Complimentary Flamingo for your guestrooms (Air Namibia In-Flight Magazine);
- Newsletters, emails and relevant information throughout the year;
- FREE source of reliable B&B's to send guests to and receive guests from around the country; and
- A vote at our yearly AGM – also a great way to meet other innkeepers and stay informed of the latest trends!

Last but not least...

- The friendly smiles, faces and camaraderie that come from knowing you belong to a Professional Organization of like-minded individuals, who want nothing more than to welcome in a stranger and have them depart as a friend. INCREDIBLE!

What do all these benefits cost?

One-Year Full Membership for only N$1,250.00

You're only a few short steps away from becoming a full member...

1. Read the Code of Ethics document and general requirements. Make sure that your business does comply.
2. Your business must be registered with the Namibia Tourism Board. This is a requirement of the country for any business that is not incorporated or is not your personal name.
3. You must submit your application and NTB registration to us.
4. After we receive your application, you will receive an invoice for your membership fee.
5. Your membership year does not begin until after payment of your membership fee.
6. Please note that it is mandatory that all B&BAN B&B's have a clear cancellation policy in their description. This is to protect both you and your guests.
